

Medical Marijuana Essentials For the Dental Practitioner

BY: DR. DAVID COOPER

November 30, 2021

Dr. Cooper will be going over what is marijuana, what is hemp and why is this relevant to you as a dentist. In this course you will also learn dental applications, such as pain, muscle spasms, anxiety and anxiolysis and what are the effects compared to other medications as well as advantages and disadvantages. You'll hear what clinical trials and research has been done and how to become a provider or how to use a referral agency.
